TCV CELEBRATES USA 250!

Host Gary Heasley and Co-Hosts, Mina Quarles and Felice Fein welcome you to join us for this special event as we celebrate America's 250th birthday with guests from two of Philadelphia's prestigious museums dedicated to preserving the history of America's fight for independence and her founding!

- 12:00 Tyler Putnam, Senior Manager, Gallery Interpretation, Museum of the American Revolution, Philadelphia: Semi-Quincentennial and fascinating facts about the Revolution; James Forton, the 10 year old witness to the birth of our nation as soldier to millionaire, and much more!
- 12:30 Resident Historian Carris Kocher joins Tyler Putnam and TCV hosts: The history literally embedded in the streets of Philadelphia, details of the Revolutionary War; property rights & unique success of the American system.
- 1:00 Jeffrey Rosen, CEO Emeritus of the National Constitution Center & Author of The Pursuit of Happiness: exploring the profound wisdom of the Founding Fathers: why the classical definition of "happiness"—rooted in self mastery and virtue—is essential for the survival of the American Constitution.
- 1:35 Jeffrey Rosen: The Fourth Amendment & Privacy, recent Supreme Court rulings; and Philadelphia Delegate John Morton's vote which helped to secure the Declaration of Independence.

This episode of The Conservative Voice has been pre-recorded. No phone calls or live streams this week. They will resume next week.
